FAIRFIELD

News Notes of the Fair—Prize Winners—Taking Inventory—Personal Mention.

There will be three more days of the Farmers' Fair, the function closing next Wednesday night. Thus it has been well patronized by the local residents, and many out of town people have come in to help the cause. Sheriff Burr has been in attendance two evenings, and says the crowd is orderly and quiet. Among those who have passed an evening on the grounds mention may be made of Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Glover, Mr. Holman Forbes, Mr. Harrah of the Rubber Factory, Assistant Postmaster George Smith and wife, Judge and Mrs. E. M. Bank of Town Clerk Flint. First Selectman Fox, Deacon Deyo and family, and the Thompson family from "Mane Village." Fairfield Beach, Mrs. Glover before leaving, the evening she visited the fair, made a handsome contribution to the funds. Some of our best citizens belong to the fire company, including Postmaster E. W. S. Pickett, Town Clerk Flint, Justice Bacon, Wakeman, Asst. Postmaster Smith, Selectman Fox, E. B. Morehouse, L. N. Bock, and Mr. Simon C. Bradley has given notice that he wishes to join the organization. Altogether there are about 60 men who belong to the Hook & Ladder Company. Thus far the boys are doing $300 to the clear, and the fair is but half over. The Milford Drum Corps and Fire Company will attend the fair tomorrow evening, and there will be a parade from Flint's corner to the truck house.

Master Lowell Jacobi won the $5 gold piece for selling the highest number of tickets for the fair, 172. Fred Granville received $2.50 for selling 118 tickets.

The Misses Perry of Boxwood cottage are entertaining a guest.

Thursday evening next, at Fairfield beach, the Christian Endeavor Society of the Congregational church will enjoy its annual clam bake and shore dinner.

The Aluminum Foundry was closed Friday and Saturday, that an inventory might be taken.

The words "Fairfield Memorial Library," are to be placed upon the facade. On Saturday paste board letters were tacked to the wall, in order to get an idea of the right size for the marble ones which are to be cut for the place.

Miss Charlotte Glover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Glover, is expected soon from Europe where she has been passing the summer.

Mrs. Mary Kent, entering Miss Kent of Troy, her niece, at her summer residence in town—the old Sun Tavern.

Owing to the fair there was little if any baseball playing yesterday.

Miss Mary B. Kippen returned on Friday from a two weeks' visit to Northfield, Mass.

WESTPORT

Donations to the Fair—Improvement Society Fete—Skin Club Race—Burglars—That Minute Man—More Bath Houses Wanted—Personals

The first three days of the fair being held at the old Catholic church, under the auspices of Father Duggan for the benefit of the Church of the Assumption, have come to an end and the result is very satisfactory. There will be three more days of the fair, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, and the same next week. The list of contributions to the fair, somewhat remarkable people in this town, Norwalk and Bridgeport having given liberally. A few of the more important ones are as follows: From James and Sons of Greens Farms, a $20 gold piece; the Children of Mary, a $10 gold piece; Fred Salmon, a $5 gold piece; a sideboard and dinner set by the parish; couch, D. M. Read Co., Bridgeport; Morris chair, A. J. Collins & Co., Norwalk; parlor lamp, Charles Fable; lamp, J. J. Mahoney, Jr.; ice cream set, Edward McKinnis; a beautiful center piece by the Sisters; bed spread, by Mrs. Mahoney; vase, Mrs. Robinson; bread mixer, George W. Liams; candy set, Mary Lee; umbrella, Lawrence Donahue; Mr. and Mrs. T. Bates, crucifix; F. Saxenmyer, fruit cake; Mrs. J. H. McCordie, cut glass olive dish and Lowenstoft salad dish; Mrs. William Walsh, fancy cake plate; Clear, one-half dozen dinner plates; Mrs. James O'Leary's family, dress suit case; Oliver Johnson, pair of fat ducks; Thomas Quinlan and family, glass table; George W. Liams, box of soap; Mrs. Paul Fruener, Norwalk, 10 gallons of kerosene oil; William O'Neil and William Youngs, parlor lamp; Thomas McQuinn, Norwalk, a silver tea set; Annie Everett, a silver ring and jewel case. The fair is well attended, and promises to be the most successful of any ever held in town.

On the 1st and 2d of September the Woman's Town Improvement Society will give a lawn fete at the home of Mrs. Charles Buck, State street.

Among the booths which are to be opened to the public will be the Turkish, a Chinese laundry with bundles for those who pay the price; Italian galleries of art; a French booth of dainty things and a Japanese booth where a cup of tea may be had. There will be salads, sandwiches, and other good things to eat. The grounds are to be tastefully decorated.

The work accomplished by the Improvement Society is so much in evidence to all who visit the town, that it has naturally aroused the enthusiasm. The center of the village is now supplied with excellent concrete sidewalks and crossings, which will be more highly appreciated when the fall rains set in and the spring thaws begin. At the recent meeting of the society at the library, the old board of officers was re-elected.

As yet no trace has been found of Richard Wakeman and Harold Speer, who have been away with a horse and rig belonging to another man. Searches have been instituted for the missing boys, but without success.

At the recent race given by the Compo Skiff club, the entries were Robert, Walter and L. K. Allen, Henry Buckingham and Jesse Hayden. Owing to the fact that a mast on the boat of L. K. Allen was carried away, and the other boats went to his assistance, the race was declared off.

Another race was to have been held last Saturday.

Dr. J. H. McCordie has been made master of the town college.

It is thought a local thief broke into Ciglar's saloon a few days ago and helped himself to cigars. Monogram whiskey, etc. A young man in town was seen intoxicated the next morning, and naturally suspicion pointed her finger towards him.

A saloon belonging to Tony Millorese has been attached by Constable Allen in the sum of $700 in the interest of Mike Tedeschi. The complaint is that the place does not pay as well as represented when Mr. Tedeschi took possession.

A few days since at the home of Mrs. C. B. Dolge, what is called a "stoking shower" was given by Mrs. Ernest Beck in compliment to Miss Emma Kemper. There was a game of whist and handsome prizes were won. A few of the ladies present included Mesdames F. M. Salmon, W. F. Osborne, H. R. Sherwood, E. W. Hubbell, J. A. Kimber, Frank Dayton, Arthur Kettle and Mrs. Orlendorf of Norwalk, also Misses Edna and Hattie Bradley, Alice Smith, Mildred Taylor, Mrs. Arthur Dolge and Mrs. Carrie Hudson.

A party of local residents has gone into the Adirondacks for a couple of weeks—Mrs. Lloyd Nash, Mrs. W. J. Wood, Miss Grace Rogers, Miss Louise Nash, W. J. Wood, Jr., and Clark Crossman.

The closing meeting in the big tent was held last night, and drew a good audience. The great rain storm interfered considerably with the full success of these meetings. Among the attractions besides the preaching, was a cornetist and stereopticon views.

George Ballwitz, at his cottage at Compo Hill, known as "Council Cottage," is entertaining a number of friends, among them J. William Rowe and family and Gould J. Hoyt of Norwalk.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Newell, after a vacation in town, have returned to Massachusetts.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Webster have moved to Noank.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Marvin, State street, are entertaining Mrs. L. M. McCormick and her daughter, Emma, from Lafayette, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Hurlbutt have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Horace Hurlbutt in Weston.

Rev. George W. Servis of the Saugatuck church, preached in Darien yesterday.

Owing to the continued illness of Rev. K. Mackenzie, Jr., there was no evening service yesterday at Holy Trinity church.

This week Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Beck, who have been visiting in town, will take a trip to Canada and the Thousand Islands.

Rev. William B. Eddy of Grace church, New York, preached in town yesterday.

A. G. Southey is having electric lights put into his house.

That bronze "Minute Man" is not likely to be unveiled at Compo this season. Such statues are not made in a minute. It is proposed to place it in the center of a pretty triangle, and to have a tree or two will have to be removed. There are those who think the tree is much more beautiful than any statue is likely to be. Why not place the Minute Man under the tree, and there must be a stone wall build a neat one of field stones around the triangle? This would be both appropriate and artistic.

The "town talk" about closing certain places of business, notably fruit stores, on Sunday, appears to have died into a whisper.

Automobiles going through town have to get up a good deal of speed if they wish to climb the hill along the trolley route past the old Catholic church. The nuisance is not so great as to cause any considerable alarm.

Since more bath houses are needed at the beach, and the new pavilion is unable to accommodate all who wish for rooms, there is not much likelihood that any one will try to destroy it the pavilion.

The Sunday school of the Northfield church recently held a picnic at Compo Beach.

In the near future the young people of the Saugatuck M. E. church will give a play called "The Story of the Pink Rose."

After a week's vacation the Lees Manufacturing Company has reopened its plant.

No matter how long you have suffered, Foley's Kidney Remedy will help you. Mrs. S. L. Bowen, of Wayne, Va., writes: "I was a sufferer from kidney disease, so that at times I could not get out of bed, and when I did I could not stand straight. I took Foley's Kidney Remedy. One dollar bottle and part of the second cured me entirely." It will cure you. F. B. Brill, local agent. *155

FEVER FROM MILK

Startling Development in Connection with Typhoid Epidemic at Woodmont Arouses Cottagers.

A somewhat startling development in connection with the typhoid epidemic at Woodmont, is that some of the residents lay the blame of the dread malady to the milk. This statement, which has caused quite a scare in the borough, as it is said that those stricken by the disease all used milk from the same dealer. In an effort to ascertain whether an investigation was being made and what plan was being followed by the authorities, last night nothing could be gathered.

Health Officer Putney, when asked regarding what steps he was taking in the matter and just what the situation was from his point of view, said last night that he would be able to tell something in about two weeks. Farther than that he did not seem at all inclined to give the public any information or warning looking to its protection.

A prominent Woodmont resident, whose family is stricken with typhoid, when told that an investigation was being made expressed some surprise, saying that this was the first story of the kind he had heard in the matter. He stated further that although a number of the people stricken had been ill for almost two weeks, he had heard nothing of an investigation of any kind taking place.
